

The County of Centre

PROCLAMATION

NUMBER 30 OF 2018

WHEREAS, the PNC Bank Day of Caring began 25 years ago when retired Marine Colonel, Gerald Russell, asked community members, high school students, Penn State students, and local businesses to come together on the first Thursday in October to volunteer their time for local non-profit organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Centre County United Way, with financial support from PNC Bank, took on the role of recruitment of volunteers and coordination of the day, fulfilling Colonel Russell's vision of a day of community service; and

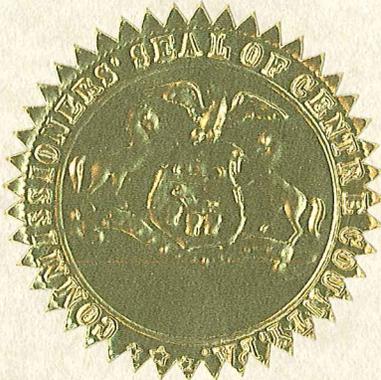

WHEREAS, it takes every part of the community – individuals, business, and organizations to supply the passion, expertise, and resources needed to create lasting change for the better; and

WHEREAS, over the past 24 years, this single day of volunteer service has placed over 62,000 volunteers who completed more than 3,400 projects saving the non-profit agencies and the County over 10 million dollars; and

WHEREAS, the 25th Anniversary of the PNC Bank United Way Day of Caring will take place on Thursday, October 4, 2018. Everyone in Centre County is invited to volunteer their time to give back to our community in a way that is meaningful and United by contacting the Centre County United Way.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED in recognition of 25 years of service to the Centre County community, the Centre County Board of Commissioners does hereby proclaim October 4, 2018 as a "Day of Caring" and urges all citizens to support the United Way.

ADOPTED this 2nd day of October 2018.

CENTRE COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Michael Pipe

Michael Pipe, Chair

Mark Higgins

Mark Higgins, Vice-Chair

Steven G. Dershem

Steven G. Dershem

ATTEST:

Margaret N. Gray

Margaret N. Gray, Administrator