ACCESSING COUNTY SERVICES DURING COVID-19 EMERGENCY

Bellefonte, PA – The Centre County Board of Commissioners and the President Judge of the Centre County Court of Common Pleas announced today the limited public access of County buildings and offices in a pre-emptive effort to mitigate the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

All persons are asked to refrain from visiting County offices. County offices are operational and functioning; however, contact with County offices should be conducted via phone, email, and any other virtual platforms to transact essential business. County personnel are available to answer questions and to assist the public with specific directions.

The County operates many distinct and diverse services each with different statutory and regulatory requirements for operation. Therefore, the public is encouraged to call any of the County offices listed below to receive guidance about how best to transact essential business needs.
