

The County of Centre

PROCLAMATION

NUMBER 3 OF 2012

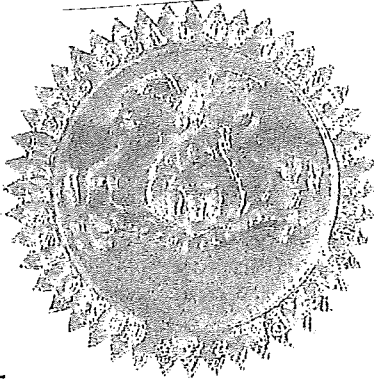

WHEREAS, the YMCA of Centre County nurtures the potential of our youth and teens, providing preschool programs, guidance and encouragement to help youth develop and realize their potential, and positive, fun activities that build athletic and social and interpersonal skills; and

WHEREAS, the YMCA of Centre County also improves the health and well-being of our community by offering programs for people of all ages and abilities, including swim lessons, fitness classes, sports and family activities; and

WHEREAS, the YMCA of Centre County has been giving back and providing support to our neighbors for 144 years and as a leading nonprofit organization, continues to stay on course even during tough economic times, thanks to the resilience and support of people in our community; as well as the collaboration with community leaders and private and public organizations to develop youth, prevent chronic disease, build a healthier community and encourage social responsibility;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED the Centre County Board of Commissioners does hereby proclaim Sunday, March 11, 2012 as "YMCA of Centre County Day" and urges citizens to attend the open houses at the Bellefonte, State College and Moshannon Valley locations.

ADOPTED this 6th day of March, 2012.
